Local Leaders Appointed to Advance Clean Energy in Maryland

A diverse group of energy experts appointed to MCEC's Advisory Council for 2020

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – The Maryland Clean Energy Center (MCEC) recently appointed 45 individuals to serve on its 2020 Advisory Council. The Council draws input from collaborative groups to direct activity related to finance, outreach & education, policy & legislation, clean energy innovation, and measuring impacts as related to the MCEC mission and market expansion for advanced energy.

“As we continue to push for growth in Maryland’s advanced energy economy, we rely on the input from local experts and stakeholders,” said Kathy Magruder, MCEC Executive Director. “We appreciate the demonstrated commitment of the individuals who will be serving on MCEC’s 2020 Advisory Council.”
